

Prof. Dr Kemal DELIJIĆ

Prof. Dr Kemal Delijić, born 1965 in Murska Sobota, Slovenia; graduate in metallurgical engineering (1990); MSc (1993) and PhD (1997) in technical sciences, University of Montenegro.

Dr Delijić is a full professor at the University of Montenegro, Faculty of Metallurgy and Technology, member of the Montenegrin State Science Council and University Governing Board, Chairman of the Technical Committee in the Montenegrin Accreditation Agency and member of the MNE State Think Tank Team. He is also a National Contact Point and a representative of the MNA in the Program Committee for "Nanotechnologies, Advanced Materials, Biotechnology, Advanced Manufacturing and Processing - Horizon 2020". In the period 2011-2013 he held the position of Montenegrin Delegate in the High Level Group of EU MS and FP7 Associated Countries on Nanosciences and Nanotechnologies.

He held the position of the Dean of the Faculty of Metallurgy and Technology (State University of Montenegro) from 2007 to 2013. During the period 1990-2007 he held a variety of managing or teaching positions at the University, as Vice-dean (2002-2007), Head of Department (200-2007), Member of the Board (1990-2002), Associate Professor (2002-2008), Assistant Professor (1997-2002) and Research Fellow (1990-1997). Professor Delijić was also involved in the negotiations on accession of MNE to the EU in the area of the Acquis concerning the Chapter 25.

His main research interests are related to new materials and technologies, Al-based materials, design of new light automotive alloys and processing methods, metal&ceramic matrix composites, composite bio-materials, nano-materials and quasicrystals, mechanical and corrosion behavior of materials.